THE DOOR TO FREEDOM

ABC and 123: These are the building blocks of American education. What begins in school fuels infinite creativity of mind and spirit. Every advance in the quality of our lives has its roots in education, which sparks a willingness to learn, explore, and grow beyond the limitations of the past.

Republicans want to muzzle free inquiry at universities and medical schools. They want to divert funding from our public schools and enrich for-profit companies and religious academies. They want to control what we see, what we hear, and what we can say.

That's un-American. We must stand up for freedom of speech, for the freedom to learn, to create, and to explore. <https://bit.ly/HR899>
